Re: Denial letter

Please be advised that pursuant to Amesbury Zoning Ordinance Section IX B, a permit to alter or re-construct cannot be issued by this office without making application to the Zoning Board of Appeals. A Special Permit/Finding would be required in order for your clients to advance with their proposed project.

Please make application for the property located at 66B Lake Attitash Rd, Amesbury, located within the R-20 zoning district. If you require additional information, please feel free to reach out to our office.

Respectfully

Vin
